

France 2011

Bonjour! I am excited to announce the opportunity for you to travel to France with EF Educational Tours this June! This trip is open to students, their parents, and anyone else who want to see France.

What you need to know:

Group Leader: Mrs. Amy Sternke, French teacher at HMS/HHS

Tour Company: EF Educational Tours (www.eftours.com)

Date of Trip: leave the first week of June 2011

Length of Trip: 11 days

Where We'll Visit: Paris, Versailles, Chartes, St. Malo, Mont St. Michel, Caen, Rouen, and Normandy – plus two days in London, England!

Cost of the Trip: around $3,200 for students

What that Cost Includes: round trip airfare, hotel accommodations, transportation during the trip, breakfast, dinner, full-time bilingual tour director, and entrance fees to all included excursions

What the Cost does NOT Include: lunches (so you can practice ordering on your own!), gratuities for the bus driver/tour director, souvenirs, and additional excursions the group votes to do. You'll also need to get a passport before we go!

How You Can Enroll: The easiest way is to go to www.eftours.com and enroll with the tour number 424595. Or, you can also enroll by calling EF at 1-877-205-9909.

Questions? You can contact Mrs. Sternke via email (asternke@hannibal.k12.mo.us) or by phone (573-221-2733, high school).
